Re: USA v. Zhu, NMI Crim. No. 03-00018-01
Ninth Circuit No. 05-10208

Sir:

The court has received your letter postmarked October 24, 2007, and sent by you to Mr. Norman Sing for translation. Mr. Sing translated your letter and brought it to the court yesterday.

As the court told you in its earlier letter to you from February of this year (a copy of which is enclosed), you are currently represented by court-appointed counsel, Mr. F. Matthew Smith. Pursuant to Ninth Circuit, Circuit Rule 4-1(e), Mr. Smith remains your post-appeal counsel unless or until he withdraws from such representation. Accordingly, you should contact Mr. Smith for any legal assistance you seek.

Sincerely,

Randy K.R. Schmidt

Re: USA v. Zhu, NMI Crim. No. 03-00018-01
Ninth Circuit No. 05-10208

Sir:

The court has received your letter of February 12, 2007, asking for appointment of counsel to pursue a writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court and also to pursue an action under 28 U.S.C. § 2255.

You are currently represented by court-appointed counsel, Mr. F. Matthew Smith. Pursuant to Ninth Circuit, Circuit Rule 4-1(e), Mr. Smith remains your post-appeal counsel unless or until he withdraws from such representation. Accordingly, you should contact Mr. Smith.

Sincerely,
